

Eight Performances Of Nativity Scene Scheduled At Park

The true meaning of Christmas will be portrayed in special religious programs at Central Park four nights this week when the Mansfield Council of Churches and the Mansfield Retail Merchants Assn. present an Nativity production.

Eight performances of the Nativity scene are planned, if weather permits, starting Tuesday night. The programs, to feature a large number of young people from churches throughout the city, will be at 6:30 and 8:20 Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights.

CHOIRS TO SING

The earlier presentation of the religious dramas will be accompanied by recorded music, but the 8:20 performance each night will feature music of church choirs. Each program will be 15 minutes in length.

Tuesday night the junior choir of Mitchell Chapel AME Church will sing under the direction of Mrs. Carey Hood.

Wednesday night the junior choir of First Methodist Church will sing, with Mrs. Edwin Cooper directing.

The Evangelical United Brethren Church chapel choir, directed by Mrs. Willard Andrew, will provide the music Thursday night, and on Friday night the chapel choir of First Christian Church, directed by Mrs. Bruce Rogers will appear.

Members of the Youth Council who also will take part are: Stephanie Arehart, Lovonia Bownes, Leedia Castello, Ed Cox, Randy Edwards, Connie Garriott, Linda Grimm, Bill Haller, Judy Hart, Ward Hines, Jack Jennings, Carol and David Kissel, Bob and Jim Lewis, Sue Linkhorn, Terry Loughman, Linda and Tom Miller.

HEAD PROGRAM

In charge of the four-night religious programs are Miss Josephine Hines, youth worker of South Main EUB

Church, and C. Schutjer of First Congregational Church. Serving as narrator will be Richard Lambert, with Bob Ryan as student assistant.
